

SAN DIEGO FOR EVERY CHILD SAN DIEGO COVID-19 CHILDREN'S FUND

SUBMIT A REQUEST FOR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TODAY!

Families continuing to work in essential service fields and those impacted by lost wages can now apply for micro-grants to support their families with funds from The San Diego COVID-19 Children's Fund. Essential service sector employees are critical to our health and safety at this time. The San Diego community recognizes the challenges and costs that come with this responsibility and unites in gratitude to provide financial support.

Apply for a micro-grant today to cover the cost of what you need to support your family.

Micro-Grant Funds Priority Areas:

- Child Care Payments to Support Families: Micro-grants to support low-income essential service workers who must continue to work but lost child care, school services and/or need extended child care hours because of this crisis.

Funding Amount: $575

- Parent Basic Needs Support: Micro-grants to help families purchase supplies necessary to keep children healthy and safe such as: food, cleaning supplies, emergency diapers, and other emergency supplies.

Funding Amount: $100

Funds will be available on a first-come, first-served basis as long as they fall within the priority support areas. One priority area funded per applicant.

Please submit a request online at <http://www.sandiegoforeverychild.org/covid19/>

If you have questions about the application, please contact childcareresourceservice@ymca.org. We wish you and your loved ones health and strength in this time.
